PolyCello Wins 2009 Family Enterprise of the Year Award for Nova Scotia

(Halifax, March 4, 2010) – The Nova Scotia Chapter of the Canadian Association for Family Enterprise (CAFE) is pleased to announce PolyCello as the winner of the local Family Enterprise of the Year Award. PolyCello now becomes eligible for the National Award to be presented in Regina during the CAFE Symposium to be held in May 2010.

Headquartered in Amherst, Nova Scotia, PolyCello is family-owned and operated and currently employs 350 people in its modern, state-of-the-art facilities in Amherst, Nova Scotia and Belleville, Ontario. With over 50 years of history, PolyCello has developed a reputation as an expert manufacturer and printer of high-quality flexible packaging.

“I’m proud to accept this award on behalf of my family, who has worked together to create a solid foundation for our company,” said Stephen Emmerson, third generation President and CEO of PolyCello. “Most importantly, I want to thank our extended PolyCello family, our employees, who continue to make it a success every day.”

The award, first established in 1983 and sponsored by RBC Royal Bank and KPMG Enterprise, recognizes significant achievement made within a family enterprise, acknowledging the importance of the family enterprise in today’s changing economy. Previous chapter winners have included O’Regan’s Automotive Group and the Bragg Group of Companies. Both went on to win the national competition for the past two years.

“On behalf of the KPMG Enterprise professionals in Atlantic Canada, we congratulate Stephen and the staff of PolyCello for this well-deserved recognition,” said Gordon Moore, Partner, KPMG. “PolyCello’s commitment to quality, client service and environmental sustainability make the company a model for family businesses in our region.”

“RBC is committed to building the health and prosperity of the communities in which we live and work, and we are pleased to support CAFE in recognizing family businesses that make a positive contribution to their communities,” said Heather Hogg, vice president, Commercial Financial Services, RBC Royal Bank.

“We extend our congratulations to PolyCello for their efforts to successfully integrate family and business interests, and for sharing knowledge and expertise across generations,” said Ms. Hogg. “We welcome this opportunity for RBC Wealth Management and RBC Commercial Financial Services to collaborate in sponsoring the Family Enterprise of the Year award in regions across Canada and CAFE’s National Symposium in May 2010.”

The finalists for the Nova Scotia award were The Cherubini Group of Companies and Clearwater Seafoods Limited Partnership.
